Index to Volume LXV

(2003–2004)

Page numbers in italics indicate illustrations. Roman numerals identify the issue (I = Autumn; II = Winter; III = Spring).

Alexander, Archibald, and the teaching of natural sciences at Princeton, II:196–97, 199–200, 201, 222

Alexander, Stephen, and the teaching of natural sciences and natural philosophy at Princeton, II:199, 217–18, 219, 221

Anderson, G. M. "Bronco Billy," III:511

angling, Princeton's collection and new acquisitions, II:382–84

Antheil, George, III:444

Beebe, William, II: 280; as aerial observer in World War I, II:273, 274, 275; early career, II:266–69; field stations in South America, II:269–73, 271, 273, 276, 281; friendship with T. Roosevelt and wife, II:266, 269–81; journals, II:264, 265–66, 267

Bell, Clive, correspondence with H. Nicolson, I:106, 108

Benesch, Isaac: almost fights with F. S. Fitzgerald, I:49; letter to, from F. S. Fitzgerald, I:43, 45, 49–50

Black, Alexander, III:452; A Capital Courtship, III:461, 462, 463–64, 467, 469, 474, 475; claims invention of the screenplay, III:475–76; develops narrative and visual structure of picture play, III:462, 465–70; The Girl and the Guardsman, III:473; invents the picture play, III:453, 456–58, 460–61, 472; Miss America, III:477; Miss Jerry, III:456, 459, 473, 474, 476; Modern Daughters, III:477; on photography and art, III:454–56; his place in the early history of cinema, III:470–77, 478

Bonner, John Tyler, II:173; "The History of Biology at Princeton," II:161–83

"Brave New World: 20th-Century Books from the Cotsen Children's Library," exhibition review by Michael Weintraub, I:110–18

Brett-Smith, John R. B., memorial for, by Stephen Ferguson, I:119–22

Burroughs, John, II:268, 278

Burt, Nathaniel, I:123; memorial for, by Alfred Bush, I:122–24

Bush, Alfred: "Einstein's Poems to Joanna Fantova: An Introduction," I:79–82; memorial for Nathaniel Burt, I:122–24

Cadman, Charles Wakefield, III:428–29; opera Shanewis premiered by the Metropolitan, III:429–30, 431

Calaprice, Alice, "Einstein's Last Musings," I:65–77

Campanini, Cleofonte, music director of Chicago opera company, III:419, 424, 426, 434–35

Campbell, Marilyn, introduction and annotation to R. Herring, "A Note on a Collection of Film Stills, etc.," III:521–30

Caputh, Germany, A. Einstein's summer home at, I:55, 56, 57

Chadwick, George Whitefield, III:420; opera The Padrone rejected by the Metropolitan and others, III:423–24

Charles Scribner's Sons, publishes eugenics texts, II:332, 338
Chukovskii, Korneii, author of Russian children's books, II:343, 344, 352–53
cinema: early foreign films in England, III:523–24, 527; early history of, III:453, 470–75, 478, 503. See also Black, Alexander; film stills
College of New Jersey. See Princeton University
Conklin, Edwin Grant, II:171, 172, 173, 176
Conried, Heinrich, III:412
Converse, Frederick Shepherd, III:428; opera The Pipe of Desire premiered by the Metropolitan, III:416–17, 418
Crane, Walter, "On Mars Hill" (sketch), II:368

Damrosch, Walter, III:420, 439; champions American opera, III:423; dealings with O. Kahn about his operas, III:422–23
Davidson, Rebecca Warren, "Cover Note," II:397–99, III:552–54
Davis, Kingsley, II:288, 312
"'Dearest Caroline': Caroline Gordon Advises Her Granddaughter," by Ann Waldron, I:89–95
De Koven, Reginald, III:426, 427, 439 dekadrachm, silver, from Syracuse, II:374
demography: as an academic discipline, II:282–85, 288–91; and coordination of population science and public policy, II:291–93, 296–99; and postwar discussions of population quality, II:307–8, 310–15; relationship with eugenics, II:285–88, 293, 299
DiBattista, Maria, "The G-String Letters," III:539–44
Dix, William, I:79, 80
Dod, Albert B., II:205, 212–13; review of Vestiges of Creation, II:186–87, 204, 206–7, 208–9, 211, 220, 233–34
Dukas, Helen, I:58, 68, 80

E. M. (Elizabeth Marsh) Museum (College of New Jersey), II:236, 255, 256, 257, 259; collections, II:254–55, 257–58, 260; earlier collections of specimens and apparatuses at Princeton, II:238–49, 251–52; established in Nassau Hall, II:252–53; expansion, II:255–56; fossils given to Peabody Museum, II:263; natural history collection moved to Guyot Hall, II:261–62; transfer of paintings and other objects to Art Museum, II:261
"The E. M. Museum: Building and Breaking an Interdisciplinary Collection," by Sara E. Turner, II:237–63
Eccles, Mary Hyde, I:126; donates Harold Nicolson papers, I:105–9; memorial for, by Bruce Redford, I:124–27
Edison, Thomas, and early cinema, III:457, 460, 470, 475
Einstein, Albert, I:59, 60, 61, 63, 67, 78, 82, II:181; on aging, I:75–76; birthdays, I:54–55, 68, 76, 79–80; children and grandchildren, I:55, 71, 79; death, I:77; his humor, I:73–74; on Israel, I:73; on J. R. Oppenheimer, I:64, 68–70; on letters from strangers, I:58, 66–68; life and friendship with J. Fantova, I:51–64, 65–66, 81–82; and music, I:58; on physics, I:58, 70–71; poems to J. Fantova, I:83–88; on politics, I:64, 72–73, 80; on religion, I:68, 74; on S. Freud, I:74–75; and sailing, I:55, 60, 61, 62; on visitors to his home, I:54, 62, 71–72
"Einstein's Last Musings," by Alice Calaprice, I:65–77
"Einstein's Poems to Joanna Fantova: An Introduction," by Alfred Bush, I:79–82
Eisenstein, Sergei, III:525; ¡Qué Viva México! III:526
Eliot, T. S., correspondence with P. E. More, I:101–5, 102
Elliott, Emory, memorial for Richard Ludwig, I:127–31

Elmer Adler Undergraduate Book Collecting Prize, award for 2004, III:531–37
Engel, Alfred, translations of A. Einstein's poems to J. Fantova, I:83–88 eugenics, II:317–18; publications about, II:319; in the United States, II:285–89, 318. See also demography evolution, theory of, reception at Princeton, II:165–67, 171. See also Vestiges of Creation

Fantova, Joanna, I:53; biographical sketch of, I:79–82; "Introduction to 'Gespräche mit Einstein,'" I:51–64; at Princeton University Library, I:56, 79, 81; and sailing with A. Einstein, I:55, 60, 61, 62; telephone conversations with A. Einstein, I:64, 65–77
Faulkner, William: The Hamlet, I:97; visit to Princeton, 1958, I:95–101; on writing, I:98–100
Ferguson, Stephen, memorial for John R. B. Brett-Smith, I:119–22
film stills, III:505, 507, 511, 514, 516, 517, 522, 525, 526; collections and collectors of, III:509–13, 521; directors' strategies, III:526; and early film criticism, III:524–27, 529–30; and scholarly study of film history, III:503, 512, 513, 518–20; and the selling of movies, III:502–3, 508–9, 524–25; and the studio system, III:503–6, 508
Fitzgerald, F. Scott, I:14, 144, III:482; as client of H. Ober literary agency, III:479–80, 482–83; first meeting with G. King, I:13, 22, 24; The Great Gatsby, I:33, 37–38; last meeting with G. King, I:40–41; letters and telegrams from the crack-up period, III:481–83, 484–501, 493, 500; letters on the autograph market, III:480–81; romance with G. King, I:13, 22–33, 38–39, 42; Tender Is the Night, I:44; uses G. King as model for characters, I:13, 16–17, 33, 39, 41–42; writes to pay bills, I:44, 46, III:482; and Zelda's play Scandalabra, I:46, 48–49, 50
Fitzgerald, Zelda, III:481–82, 482; psychiatric treatment, I:43, 44; Save Me the Waltz, I:44, 46. See also Scanalabra
"Frank W. Notestein, Frederick H. Osborn, and the Development of Demography in the United States," by Edmund Ramsden, II:282–316

Gatti-Casazza, Giulio, III:441, 447; as general manager of the Metropolitan, III:413, 414, 426–28, 432, 434–35, 436, 437, 438, 446
Gershwin, George, III:440, 445
Gibbons, Reginald, memorial for Theodore Weiss, I:134–39
Gibson, Richard, "T. S. Eliot's Mistaken Date," I:101–5
Gilbert, Henry F., III:429, 433–34
"Ginevra and Scott, Their Romance," by James L. W. West III, I:13–42
Gomery, Douglas, "The Images in Our Minds: Film Stills and Cinema History," III:502–20
Gordon, Caroline: advice to her granddaughter about writing, I:89–95; diagram of the problem of the narrator, I:94; on the Primal Plot, I:91–93, 92
Gould, Carol Grant, "William Beebe and Theodore Roosevelt: Natural Connections," II:265–81
Grant, Madison, II:267, 320; as advocate of eugenics, II:319, 321–23, 338–39; publications by, II:323, 326, 327; publishes books on eugenics with Scribner's, II:325, 326, 328, 329, 330–31, 336–37; reception of his books, II:331–38, 340
Griffin, Gillett: friendship with A. Einstein, I:79–80; gift of J. Fantova materials to Princeton, I:82; sketch of A. Einstein, I:82

Gruenberg, Louis, opera The Emperor Jones premieres at the Metropolitan, III:444, 445–46, 447, 448
"The G-String Letters," by Maria DiBattista, III:539–44
Guyot, Arnold, II:249–50, 252–53
Guzski, Carolyn, "Otto Kahn and Americanism at the Metropolitan Opera," III:409–51

Hadley, Henry, III:435
Hammerstein, Oscar, I: commission to V. Herbert, III:415, 418; competes against the Metropolitan Opera, III:412–13, 413, 416, 426; departure from opera field, III:418n.18
Hanson, Howard, opera Merry Mount commissioned and premieres at the Metropolitan, III:445, 448–50, 449
"The Harold Nicolson Papers," by Margaret Sherry Rich, I:105–9
Harvey, E. Newton, II:171, 173, 176
Harvey, Ethel Browne, II:172
Harvey, Gabriel, books from his library, II:379–80
Hawkins, Benjamin Waterhouse, paintings by, in E. M. Museum, II:254, 258–60, 259
Henry, Joseph, II:198, 247; presidential address to the American Association for the Advancement of Science, II:225–28; and the teaching of natural philosophy at Princeton, II:196–97, 209, 210, 211, 213–14, 217, 218
Herbert, Victor: opera Madeleine premieres at the Metropolitan, III:424–25; opera Natoma premieres in Chicago, III:419; receives opera commission from O. Hammerstein, III:415
Herring, Robert: collection of film stills, III:511, 521; "A Note on a Collection of Film Stills, etc.," III:521–30
"The History of Biology at Princeton," by John Tyler Bonner, II:161–83
Hodge, Charles, II:199, 201, 202, 204. See also Princeton Review
Homar, Lorenzo, alphabet carved by, III:555
Hooker, Brian, III:420–21
Horowitz, Sarah, etching from Mohn, II:361
Hosack, Dr. David, donates collection of minerals to College of New Jersey, II:245–46

"The Images in Our Minds: Film Stills and Cinema History," by Douglas Gomery, III:502–20
"Interpreting a New Fitzgerald Letter," by James L. W. West III, I:43–50
"Introduction to 'Gespräche mit Einstein,'" by Joanna Fantova, I:51–64

Jackson, Sheldon, II:260
Jacobs, William P., II:172, 173
Jaeger, Benedict, organizes natural history cabinet at Princeton, II:246–47
Jepsen, Glenn, II:175, 262

Kahn, Otto Herman, III:411; establishes opera companies in Boston, Chicago, and Philadelphia, III:417, 419n.20; financial support of Metropolitan Opera, III:414, 418n.18, 420; as patron of modern theater, III:424, 440, 442n.90; role in developing American opera, III:409, 414–16, 420, 421–23, 424, 425–27, 429–30, 432, 434, 436, 437, 438–40, 450–51
King, Ginevra, I:15; and biographers of F. S. Fitzgerald, I:16, 17–19; destroys letters from F. S. Fitzgerald, I:18, 39; diary, I:19, 20, 22, 23, 29; last meeting with F. S. Fitzgerald, I:40–41; letters to F. S. Fitzgerald, I:18–19, 20, 21; as model for F. S. Fitzgerald characters, I:13, 16–17, 33, 39, 41–42; "A Perfect Hour" (short story), I:33–37; romance with F. S. Fitzgerald, I:13, 19, 22–33, 38–39, 42

Kiser, Clyde, II:286; and study of post–World War II fertility, II:296–97
Kliachko, Lev Moisevich, publisher of Russian children's books, II:344–47

Lang, Fritz, III:524n.4; Metropolis, III:524, 525
Lee, Gypsy Rose, III:538, 543; writes The G-String Murders, III:539–44
Libbey, William, Jr., II:167, 168, 253, 260
"Liebe Hanne! Einstein's Poems to Johanna Fantova," translated by Alfred Engel, I:83–88
Loeffler, Charles Martin, III:420, 432–33
Lorimer, Frank, II:286; and social eugenics, II:301, 303–4, 307, 316
Loring, Jane, III:517
"The Lost Months: New Fitzgerald Letters from the Crack-Up Period," edited and introduced by James L. W. West III, III:479–501
Ludwig, Richard, I:129; memorial for, by Emory Elliott, I:127–31

MacArthur, Robert, II:179–81, 180
Maclean, John, Jr., II:190, 246; and teaching of science at Princeton, II:163–64, 192
MacPherson, Ryan C., "Natural and Theological Science at Princeton, 1845–1859: Vestiges of Creation Meets the Scientific Sovereignty of God," II:184–235
"Madison Grant, Maxwell Perkins, and Eugenics Publishing at Scribner's," by Brian Regal, II:317–41
Mahler, Gustav, III:416–17
Manhattan Opera House, III:412, 414n.7, 416
Marshak, Samuil, author of Russian children's books, II:342, 343
Martignoni, Girolamo Andrea, map of the history of Italy and part of Germany, II:388
Martorell, Antonio, "Lorenzo Homar: A Man of Letters," III:554–56
McCosh, James, II:250–51
"Meeting William Faulkner: Recollections of a Freshman, 1958," by Charles Rippin, I:95–101
Metropolitan Opera: commissions to American composers, III:436, 440, 445; competition for native-born American composers, III:414, 420; inclusion of works by American composers in repertoire, III:409, 416, 420, 421–23, 424, 425–27, 429–30, 432, 435, 437–38, 448; and nationalism, III:415–16, 422n.29, 427–28, 436–38; radio broadcasts, III:446, 447
Millay, Edna St. Vincent, III:441, 442; composes libretto for The King's Henchman, III:440–41
Mizener, Arthur, and G. King, I:16, 17–18
More, Paul Elmer, correspondence with T. S. Eliot, I:101–5, 102
Mortimer, Raymond, correspondence with H. Nicolson, I:108–9

"Natural and Theological Science at Princeton, 1845–1859: Vestiges of Creation Meets the Scientific Sovereignty of God," by Ryan C. MacPherson, II:184–235 natural sciences, as taught at Princeton, II:197, 199–204, 211, 234–35, 238–41, 244–45
Nicolson, Harold, papers donated by Mary Hyde Eccles, I:105–9, 107
Nietzsche, Friedrich, collection of first editions of his works, II:380–81
Notestein, Frank W., II:286, 289; criticizes eugenicists and population alarmists, II:290–91, 293; friendship with F. H. Osborn, II:299, 306; on improving the quality of populations, II:304–6, 308–9, 310; leads Office of

Notestein, Frank W. (cont.)
Population Research at Princeton, II:283, 284, 288–90; promotes family planning, II:294–99, 313–15

Ober, Harold: as literary agent for F. S. Fitzgerald, III:479–80, 482–83; letters and telegrams from F. S. Fitzgerald during the crack-up period, III:484–99, 493
Oberfranc, Gretchen M., "Introduction," I:11–12
Office of Population Research (Princeton University): and academic study of populations and fertility, II:282–85, 296–97; early history, II:288–89. See also Notestein, Frank W.
Oppenheimer, J. Robert, A. Einstein's observations on, I:68–70
Osborn, Frederick Henry, II:300; and his concept of social eugenics, II:287–88, 300–304, 310–11, 314, 316; heads Population Council, II:306; promotes academic study of demography, II:300, 315
Osborn, Henry Fairfield, II:167, 168, 169, 170, 300, 315, 322; furthers career of W. Beebe, II:266–68; helps M. Grant publish with Scribner's, II:323–24; publishes with Scribner's, II:324; writes introduction for M. Grant's second book, II:339–40
O'Sullivan, Timothy, "Navajoe Indians near Old Fort Defiance," II:395
"Otto Kahn and Americanism at the Metropolitan Opera," by Carolyn Guzski, III:409–51

Pabst, G. W., III:523, 524
Parker, Horatio, III:420–21
"A Perfect Hour," by Ginevra King, I:33–37; similarities to works by F. S. Fitzgerald, I:37–38, 41–42
Perkins, Maxwell, II:327; editor of books on eugenics by M. Grant, II:326, 332–33, 336–37, 341
Pirie, Ginevra King. See King, Ginevra
The Population Bomb (Moore), II:292, 293
Princeton Review (Biblical Repertory and Princeton Review), II:196, 204, 206, 220, 233
Princeton Theological Seminary: and natural theology, II:222–24; and Presbyterian orthodoxy, II:193–96, 228–33; and the teaching of natural sciences and natural philosophy, II:197, 199–204, 209–11, 226–27, 234–35
Princeton University (College of New Jersey): cabinet of natural history, II:242–45, 246; collection of minerals, II:245–46, 247, 248; history of biology at, II:161–83; library and portrait gallery in Nassau Hall, II:248–49; library and philosophical apparatus in Nassau Hall, II:239–42; Museum of Natural History in Guyot Hall, II:261–63, 262; Philosophical Hall, II:243; religion at, II:189–92; and the teaching of natural sciences, II:192, 197, 199, 211, 234–35, 238–41, 244–45, 251. See also E. M. Museum; Office of Population Research

Raduga, publishing house for Russian children's books, II:343–56, 348
Ramsden, Edmund, "Frank W. Notestein, Frederick H. Osborn, and the Development of Demography in the United States," II:282–316
Redford, Bruce, memorial for Mary Hyde Eccles, I:124–27
Regal, Brian, "Madison Grant, Maxwell Perkins, and Eugenics Publishing at Scribner's," II:317–41
Remshardt, Ralf, "'The Story and the Screen': Alexander Black's Picture

Plays and the Prehistory of Cinema," III:453–78
Rich, Margaret Sherry, "The Harold Nicolson Papers," I:105–9
Rippin, Charles, "Meeting William Faulkner: Recollections of a Freshman, 1958," I:95–101
Rittenhouse Orrery, I:239–40
Robertson, David A., Jr., memorial for Frank E. Taplin Jr., I:131–33
Roosevelt, Theodore, II:322; and death of son in World War I, II:275–76, 277–78; friendship with W. Beebe, II:266, 269–81; furthers career of W. Beebe, II:268–70; visits W. Beebe's field station in South America, II:270–72, 271

Sammelbände, new acquisitions, II:384–86
Scandalabra, by Zelda Fitzgerald, I:44, 47; disastrous production, I:48–49, 50; plot, I:46, 48; similarities to other works, I:48
Scherer, Heinrich, arctic polar map, II:372
Schulberg, B. P., III:516
Scott, William Berryman, II:167, 168, 170
Scudder, Alfred N. C., assistant to J. Henry, II:376
Serafin, Tullio, Metropolitan Opera conductor, III:441, 449–50
Shull, George Harrison, II:173, 174
Stein, Gertrude, III:445
"'The Story and the Screen': Alexander Black's Picture Plays and the Prehistory of Cinema," by Ralf Remshardt, III:453–78
Stroheim, Erich von, III:521, 521n.1; Queen Kelly, III:522
student lecture notes at Princeton, II:163, 221

"T. S. Eliot's Mistaken Date," by Richard Gibson, I:101–5
Taplin, Frank E., Jr., I:132; memorial for, by David A. Robertson Jr., I:131–33
Taylor, Joseph Deems, III:441; composition and premiere of The King's Henchman, III:440–42; composition and premiere of Peter Ibbetson, III:442–44, 443; rebuts opera-in-English advocates, III:439; receives Metropolitan's first opera commission, III:440
Thomson, Virgil, III:444–45
Tibbett, Lawrence, III:446, 447, 448
Torrey, John, II:164, 245
Toscanini, Arturo, III:414, 419, 451
Turner, Sara E., "The E. M. Museum: Building and Breaking an Interdisciplinary Collection," II:237–63

Vestiges of the Natural History of Creation (Chambers): publication of, II:184–85; reception at Princeton, II:188, 212, 214–20, 222–23, 225, 227, 228–35; reviewed by A. Dods, II:206–7, 208–9, 211, 233–34; sequel reviewed by Princeton students, II:214–15

Waldron, Ann, "'Dearest Caroline': Caroline Gordon Advises Her Granddaughter," I:89–95
Weintraub, Michael, "Brave New World: 20th-Century Books from the Cotsen Children's Library" (exhibition review), I:110–18
Weiss, Theodore, I:135; memorial for, by Reginald Gibbons, I:134–39
Welty, Eudora: collection of books and ephemera, II:381–82; high school drawings by, II:381, 382
West, James L. W., III: "Cover Note," I:145–46; "Ginevra and Scott, Their Romance," I:13–42; "Interpreting a New Fitzgerald Letter," I:43–50; introduction and annotation of F. S. Fitzgerald letters from the crack-up period, III:479–501

Wieschaus, Eric, II:178
"William Beebe and Theodore Roosevelt: Natural Connections," by Carol Grant Gould, II:265–81
Wilson, Woodrow, addresses soldiers in Europe, II:391
Winterle, Maja (sister of A. Einstein), I:58, 59, 62
Zero Population Growth, II:293
Ziegler, Edward, III:447; as assistant general manager of Metropolitan Opera, III:432–34, 436–37, 440